“Share the Journey” Campaign

LEARNING ABOUT RACISM AND WORKING FOR RACIAL JUSTICE
SUCCESS STORIES: Schools facilitate encounter for Catholic-Muslim pen-pals.

“We responded to Pope Francis’ call to build a culture of encounter by starting a pen pal relationship between our students and students at a local Muslim school.

At St. Mark’s Catholic Elementary School in St. Paul, MN, we strive to incorporate Pope Francis’ invitation to create a culture of encounter in the formation of the minds and hearts of our students. So, we enthusiastically accepted an invitation from the local private Muslim school to bridge cultures and cultivate real connections between our 5th grade students through letter writing. In their letters, our fifth graders shared about their faith and cultures and discovered new things about their friends at Al-Amal private school, including the fact that they both loved soccer! Meanwhile our principal taught a class to our fifth graders about the Abrahamic religions, reflecting upon the unity and diversity of the Jewish, Muslim, and Christian traditions and Jesus’ prayer that we may all be one. After several weeks of exchanging letters, the two 5th grade classes met at a local park where they encountered their pen pals and introduced each other to their friends—and played a quick game of soccer. For our fifth graders, the students at Al-Amal are their friends. We hope that this encounter and the continued openness and acceptance of our brothers and sisters helps us to respond to the call to love our neighbors.”

Fourth Sunday of Easter

Whom do we follow and to whose voice do we listen? This Sunday as we continue to unpack the meaning of our Baptism, we hear Jesus call himself the Good Shepherd whose sheep hear his voice and follow his lead. That way of Jesus is the way of love and unity. We are truly blessed to be loved so much and, because we have been given so much, we must in turn live lives of generous love toward all. Are there some in our world we believe are undeserving of love or respect or generosity? Jesus gave his life for them, how shall we respond?

Cuarto Domingo de Pascua

¿A quién seguimos y a la voz de quien hacemos caso? Este sábado mientras continuamos descubriendo el significado de nuestro Bautismo, escuchamos a Jesús llamarse a si mismo el Buen Pastor cuyas ovejas escuchan su voz y siguen su liderazgo. El camino de Jesús es el camino del amor y la unidad. Somos verdaderamente bendecidos por ser amados tanto y por que se nos ha dado tanto, nos toca entonces, vivir vidas con amor generoso hacia todos ¿Hay alguien en nuestro mundo que creemos que carece de amor, respeto o generosidad? Jesús dio su vida por ellos ¿Cómo debemos responder?

FAMILY CONNECTION

Fourth Sunday of Easter

The Good Shepherd makes sacrifices for the sheep not because it is required, but because it is a choice. That sounds a lot like parenting and the dynamics of a healthy family life. Parents choose to make sacrifices for their children out of love, not obligation. Christian parents model and invite their children to choose to make sacrifices for other family members and for other people, acting out of love rather than obligation. When you gather as a family, invite each family member to consider the attitude that permeates their participation in family life. Read a common examen, such as any of the following: Do we do family chores cheerfully and without having to be asked multiple times? Do we gladly share with others? Do we willingly contribute to the family good when asked? Read aloud today's Gospel, John 10:11-18. Discuss together how the example of the Good Shepherd might inspire your family life. Invite each family member to make a renewed commitment to one action/attitude to focus on in the upcoming week that show that we will choose to follow the example of the Good Shepherd. Pray together that we will be able to honor our commitment. Pray together Saint Ignatius of Loyola's Prayer for Generosity:

Lord Jesus, teach me to be generous; teach me to serve you as you deserve, to give and not to count the cost, to fight and not to heed the wounds, to toil and not to seek for rest, to labor and not to seek reward, except that of knowing that I do your will. Amen.

55TH WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS - April 22

Today the Church throughout the world prays for vocations. Will you make a special effort to ask the Lord for more vocations to the priesthood and religious life?

- Pray for the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead.
- Keep our parish priests in your prayers throughout the week.
- Encourage your children, grandchildren, or other young people to consider a vocation as a priest or religious brother or sister.
- Pray a rosary for more young men and women in our diocese to respond to God's call.
